Dear Parents / Guardians,

S3: A Visit to Hong Kong Disneyland (LTP24/098)

In line with the belief that learning trips, which enhance learning effectiveness and foster appreciation for authentic learning, are essential parts of quality education, our school actively initiates a series of activities and outings on Diversity Learning Day. It is hoped that these activities can help promote academic excellence and strengthen rapport among students so that they can learn deeper, wider and faster with relish, adding enhanced meaning to instruction and providing opportunities for students to widen their horizons on views of life and culture of Hong Kong.

The visit, which is well linked to our school-based curriculum with follow-up activities and reflections, is thoughtfully designed and guided by our teachers. Details are as follows:

Title of activity	:	English story book creation project & musical appreciation
